

IPC Training – 610 (All Revisions including Rev F)

Content

This four day course is aimed at candidates or companies who work in the electronic industry who require the knowledge and skills relating to IPC.

The course covers soldering, surface mounting criteria, connecting terminals, component damage etc.

All aspects of quality and ESD/EOS are covered and depending on the modules that are chosen a wide variety of subjects are also available.

OVERVIEW

- Price on application
- IAG I
- Course contact – Peter Birks mob - 07500446449.....07826520578
- Venue – Telford College of Arts and Technology—On-site at company premises
- Part time
- Course duration 4 days
- Fully certified for 2 years
- Course fees cover, exam and enrolment and certificate
- Maximum of (7) candidate's
- Available results are accessible and recorded on the IPC global database.