

IPC Training – 7711 / 7721 (Rev B)

Content

This Three day course is aimed at candidates or companies who work in the electronic industry who require the knowledge and skills required to rework and repair boards and assemblies.

The course covers rework and repair procedures, product classification, surface mount, handling electronic assemblies, primary heating methods etc.

OVERVIEW

- Price on application
- IAG I
- Course contact – Peter Birks..... mob 07500446449.....07826520578
- Venue – Telford College of Arts and Technology and on-site in company
- Part time
- Course duration 3 days
- Theory and practical assessments
- Overview of Most frequently used repair methods
- Course size up to (7) candidates
- Course enrolment, exams and certification are all included in the price.